Who Are the Friends of the Library?

The Friends of Berthoud Community Library District is a non-profit 501C3 organization run by group of volunteers and supporters. We help raise money for special programs and items that are not covered by a Library's annual budget.

How do the Friends of the Library Raise Funds?

We raise money for the library by selling used books all year long. Membership dollars and other fund-raisers contribute as well.

How Do Friends of the Library Make a Difference?

We contribute book sale proceeds, fundraising, and memberships every year to our library to help fund programs and events, including,

- Summer Reading Program for all ages
- Library/literary conference scholarships for library staff.
- Special events for all ages

How Can You Help?

You can help in a variety of ways.

- Become a member!
- Volunteering
- Donate your used books to the Friends
